

Summarise what is fund raising

Speaker: We can summarise. We are saying that fund raising is the art and science of creating and nurturing a long term, durable, mutually beneficial relationships. Relationships are necessary because you do not want to invest time effort and money on a one time transaction with a donor.