

What kind of skills do I need to possess

Communication - communicating about your organisation to the donor and thereafter convincing him to part with his wallet.

Once you convince the donor to donate then the next part is to communicate how the donation was used and whether it is to his satisfaction.

Written and oral communication skills are needed. What you telling about your organisation? The Script

Language, the Presentation, Listening